

Are you a public or private entity?

Do you operate in a critical sector?

1. Energy
2. Transport
3. Banking
4. Financial market infrastructures
5. Health
6. Drinking water
7. Waste water
8. Digital infrastructure
9. ICT service management (business to business)
10. Public administration
11. Space
12. Postal & courier services
13. Waste management
14. Manufacture, production and distribution of chemicals
15. Manufacture, production and distribution of food
16. Manufacturing
17. Digital providers
18. Research

Do you provide services or carry on your activities within the EU?

This applies even if you are not based in a Member State yourself

Do you qualify as a medium sized enterprise? ie:

Employ 50 people or more and have an annual turnover more than €10m

If you answered yes to these 4 questions then

NIS 2 applies to you

Regardless of size, do you operate in any of the critical sectors outlined above and provide any of the following?

- Public electronic communications networks
- Publicly available electronic communications services
- Trust services
- Top level domain name registries
- Domain name systems

Do you meet any of the national risk assessment criteria?

- Are you the sole provider in a Member State of a service which is essential for the maintenance of critical societal or economic activities?
- Could disruption of the service you provide have a significant impact on public safety, security, or health?
- Could disruption of the service you provide induce a significant systemic risk, particularly where such disruption could have a cross border impact?
- Are you critical because of your importance at national or regional level for the sector or type of service you provide?

Do you provide domain name registration services?

If you answered yes to any of these questions then

NIS 2 Directive applies to you

